Library Business & News

North reported that check out is flat and is the same across the county.

Self- check use is at 23%.

Summer Reading has come and gone. Reward books are out. Registration is down about 100 from last year, but still at around 1200. The new location for programs at Cannery Square was very successful. The larger space provides more room for performers and attendees. Attendance was over 175 at each performance.

New City Manager Joe Gall will attend the next Library Board meeting. He has been doing meet and greet meetings with each employee. He is very interested in the library and plans to shadow staff to learn more about what we do.

Municipal Court moved back to Community Meeting Room in July.

Effective July 1st we lost the Cultural Pass to the Washington County Rock Museum, but added Evergreen Aviation and Space Museum. Crystal Garcia contacted Evergreen about prizes for the Adult Summer Reading program and put them in touch with WCCLS

Jenny is still on leave and Crystal and Pinn are doing a great job of filling in. Jenny will be back part-time in September.

Friends of the Sherwood Library replaced the play cube in the Children's area.

Writing workshops will be back in October sponsored by the Friends of the Sherwood Library.

Adult Summer Reading prizes – 12 prizes were awarded. Crystal did a great job finding sponsors for the prizes.

Programs for September include:

September 9th-Cancer – What it is and what it is not – with herbalist Morteza Aleali from 2-3pm.

September 13th - Peyote Stitch Class – with Pattie Lamb from 6-7:30pm.

September 15th - Zumba Tonic exercise program for kids with Carolyn Thomson from 12-1pm.

September 22nd – “ Fall in love with poetry” workshop with Paulann Petersen from 1-4:30.

September 29th – Book signing “Sherwood Tales” with June Reynolds from 10am-12pm.

Goodbye and Thank You to Molly Woodbury for her service on the Library Board!

Other business

Nancy Ellingson noted that the new City Manager Joe Gall asked each councilor to “Show me your Sherwood” and spent time with each of them learning about Sherwood from each of their perspectives.

Nancy shared an experience she had with Sherwood Police recently and how impressed she was with the way they handled the situation.

Nancy also shared she is working her way through all of Johnny Depp’s movies and associated books.

Nancy asked about patrons abusing the furniture. She has noticed people with their feet on the furniture, etc. We always hope patrons will be respectful of the space but it is difficult to police behavior.

The next Board meeting is on Wednesday, October 17th at 6:30 pm in the Library/City Hall Community Meeting Room.

Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 7:06 pm.
